CHANTI, 32, invites her YouTube channel subscribers to help choose her sperm donor.

Hi there, YouTubers!

Before I start, a special thanks to all my subscribers for following me on my journey to find a sperm donor – I’ve just hit the 20K mark! So, yay!

For those new to my channel, my name’s Chanti, I’m single, 35 and a masseur.

For the past year I’ve been on this amazing journey to have a baby.

I’ve always wanted to be a mom, but I didn’t really think about it till last year, when all my friends were having babies.

I looove kids and everybody’s like, “Chanti when are you gonna find Mr Right? (Indicating a ticking clock) Tick, tick tick!”

I post every Thursday, so like and subscribe!

As you know, it’s taken like months to find the perfect dad. I’ve read like about 100 profiles. It’s like a dating app, except you don’t have to sleep with them.

I’ve narrowed it down to three. I was gonna have one of those parties where your friends help you choose, but then I thought: hey, what about all my online friends?

Here’s my checklist for Mr Right:

No.1 – No genetic diseases. You wouldn’t believe how many donors test positive for all sorts of weird diseases. Why are they even donating?

I thought about going with this Chinese donor, coz he had the perfect genetic makeup.

I’m not Chinese – obviously – but his baby photos were super cute.

But then he was all out of vials.

No. 2 – Gorgeous! It’s not random, like falling in love or anything, so you may as well get the most bang for your buck.

No.3 – Smart – but not nerdy. I don’t want my kid to be picked on.

So here goes. Ready? Drum roll!

My No.1 is donor 2245 – Swedish, tall, blonde with ocean-blue eyes, a med student who likes skiing and football – and with a limit of 10 babies per donor, which means your kid’s less likely to meet and marry her brother. Lookalike: Brad Pitt.

No.2 is donor 4758 – Italian, tall, dark, muscular – a plumber. Handy around the house and loves to travel. I love to travel, so we’re kinda a match there.

Beat

On second thoughts, he might be a bit hairy. If it’s a girl, I don’t want her to have to wax all the time. Lookalike: Harry Styles

Mr Right

No. 3 – Donor 6939 – is a bit indie, like me. He loves to cook and he's into hip-hop. Asked what he'd do with a thousand dollars, he said he'd probably get another tattoo, so that's something else we have in common. Lookalike: Johnny Depp.

So that's it: You can vote in the comments below.

I'm excited!

Tune in next Thursday, for the results.

May the best man win!
